Message from the Chairman

Club Improvements

With the finalisation of our Club renovations the focus is now on completing the installation of free WIFI for our members and guests, repairing the concrete pathway adjacent to #3 green, training of our office staff to remotely update information on both sides of the LED screen section of the newly erected XXXX sign and completing the digital electronic infrastructure that powers our Club computers, security, sound and light systems.

Greens

Our Games Director, Vince Sullivan is sourcing suitable rubber matting for the faces for the banks of our greens to replace the existing blue carpet that has proved unsatisfactory when bowlers play drive shots on our greens.

Thanks to the dedicated efforts of our greenkeeper Graeme Shillington, the condition and speed of #1 green is steadily improving and is on track by October to be of a suitable standard for all our club bowlers.

Trading

Taking into consideration the Club renovations, repair and upgrading of our external bowling greens equipment and roof sealing repairs, trading for the 9 month period from October 2014 to June 2015 shows we are trading well and are on track to achieve our financial targets for this year.

Congratulations

The Club congratulates (in no specific order) Scott De Jongh who recently won the 2015 Tweed Prestige Singles, Jacquie McWhinney for runner up in the 2015 Australian Open Women's Pairs, Serena Nicholls for runner up in the 2015 Australian Open physical disability Women's Singles, Jake Fehlberg for runner up in the 2015 Australian Open vision impaired Men's Singles and Ian Law and Dean McWhinney for runners up in the 2015 Australian Open Men's Fours.

Club Trivia

Wednesday 15th July saw the completion of the eight week season trial of 'Clarry Einsteins Tournament of Trivia'. Congratulations to the $500 grand final winners who are a local team called 'Cats Whiskers' and all trivia teams agreed that the tournament was a great success. The Club has assessed the trial and is pleased to announce that a further eight week season will commence on Wednesday 22nd July. Concerns about a possible decrease in Club trading during the initial trial were unfounded – there was a slight decrease in raffle sales but that was offset by increases in both bar and gaming trading.

New Club Caterer

Chef Steve Paul has overcome some minor transition problems and is now cooking fantastic meals at club comparable prices for our members and guests. I urge all our members to take advantage of his culinary skills and support Steve and his support staff in their endeavour to provide exceptional customer service, not only for lunch and dinner, but throughout the afternoons where you can meet and greet friends for a quiet chat whilst enjoying superb coffee, tea, cakes and snacks.

Third Quarter Financial Report

The figures below represent the state of the club's finance at the end of the third quarter of the reporting year. With the renovations almost complete and the upgrade of the gaming room proving to be a 'winner' with patrons, the results are pleasing. Peter Hamilton, the Men's President has recently advised that in the first half of this calendar year some 20 sessions of mens bowling have been lost due to inclement weather. This of course, impacts club income.

CURRENT CASH ASSETS	$1,054,959
TOTAL ASSETS	$1,747,069
TOTAL LIABILITIES	$216,308
OVERALL NET TRADING PROFIT	$110,516 (The Target for this year was $300,000 less renovation/gaming room upgrade costs). We are on target.

Coaching Notes by Ron

This month I thought I would talk about Relaxation of the mind and body when in a tight contest and feeling very tense, self belief and confidence in your own ability are really one and the same thing.

If you come into a match feeling "Ho-Hum" you won't get far because you are too relaxed and your arousal level is therefore too low. You will find you can't concentrate on your game and it won't flow. On the other hand if you feel completely unbeatable and better than the rest of the field, you are too hyped up and again will fail, because your arousal level is too great and you are therefore over confident and feeling you are better than your ability level. You need to feel somewhat anxious, nervous and stressed and only you know how much of each you need, to perform to your utmost. Pay attention to your arousal levels and how they affect your performance, and strive for the level that's ideal for you. At some point in a game you may play a bad shot and fall behind and think "It's gone- I'm finished", this negativity must be dealt with immediately. This is probably the point to get away slightly from the rink and relax both your mind and body with possibly the oldest relaxation technique. Stand erect, drop your chin to your chest, take a long deep breath forcing into your abdomen, exhale through the mouth and imagine some relaxing scene you know. Do this 4 or 5 times, walk back to the mat thinking "Anything you can do I can do better" and provided you have trained your mind and your body to play the shot, you will, provided you really believe you can. This belief only comes with training to play to the best of your ability, remember TRAIN IMPROVE AND BELIEVE.

Confidence (self belief) is an essential element of any sport's performance. In lawn bowling the possibility of playing an effective shot without choice, planning and confidence in your decision is very remote. The problem of over-confidence arises when a player makes hasty or ill judged decisions in relation to the choice of shot to play. The reality of over-confidence is akin to arrogance or disrespect for the opponent's ability, or the conditions of the green or the environmental conditions. The balance is struck when the player feels conviction in their ability to perform the shot, while still weighing up the correct shot and percentage chance of success. This means that confidence is part of the latter part of the assessment process which comes after the right decision has been made. In fact the player has a greater opportunity for real concentration in the knowledge that correct decisions and choices have been made.

Confidence is the thing that is required when the shot is being played, not before!!!

Good bowling and enjoy
Ron

Lady Presidents Report

It has been a delight to welcome so many visitors from the Southern states and New Zealand and we are pleased that they've chosen to spend part or all of their holiday enjoying our clubs facilities.

Club competitions are ongoing. Congratulations to our Novice Singles Champion Karen Harding. This is Karens second win as she was also be part of the winning Fours team who will be playing in the District Fours Championship at Tweed Heads on the 3rd and 4th of August.

The Pennant season is well underway with mixed success. We still have plenty of games ahead and we thank all of those who are taking part. We acknowledge the work of Dorothy Hanlon and her fellow selectors. We all agree it is an unenviable task.

We wish Colleen Maslen well as she takes up a new appointment in Melbourne in early August. We thank her for her contribution as both a selector and an umpire.

Happy bowling everyone
Barbara Ridgers

Camels Corner

Welcome the August issue of Camels corner. The past month saw the Camels head off on our annual trip to Evans Head, a road trip that is always heaps of fun! For family reasons big Wally was a non-starter so it was left to some of the new boys to step up & take charge! Ian Spackman was the stand in president for the weekend and did a great job of keeping the boys in check. Spacko did however come up with a novel idea of sharing the role with fellow Camels for periods of 8 hours per man. First cab off the rank was Denny taking over for the trip down and most of Saturday. In his last hours as Pres Denny lost complete control of one of our newer Camels members Grego showing all the typical signs of a first time road tripper! One of the funnier sites was seeing Grego at the pub doing his best Leaning Tower Of Pisa impression whilst contemplating "Should I have another Tooheys" The answer was self-evident and Grego decided to call it a night heading home, only trouble was his legs weren't quite up to the short walk back to the Cabins and Shaun found him an hour later half way home cuddling a fence! Well done Shaun for assisting a fellow Camel in his hour of need and helping him home!

On the greens Saturday saw the Camels take on bowlers from Evans Head including ex Camel Strawb Thompson. The Camels put on a bowling exhibition cleaning up the boys from Evans 163-128.

Sunday saw the Raw Prawns appear for the annual grudge match against the Camels. Yoggi made the dash up from his fishing trip at Lennox for the big game. Unfortunately the Prawns saved their best until the Sunday game and got up 7 rinks to 3. The Camels did however claim overall honours for the weekend with a plus 7 score for both days, making the long trip home easier. Whilst on the return trip special mention to Steph, with a little encouragement from Denny, Steph entertained the boys with his stories of past sporting glories, particularly on the rinks!

CAMELS PLAYER IN PROFILE Shaun (Stiffler) Wheeler

Shaun joined the Camels in early 2014 after being convinced by his mate Darcy to give bowls a go! In a past sporting life Stiffler was a pro golfer travelling the Aussie circuit, as most know golfers make reasonable bowlers and that is certainly the case with Shaun. As you may remember from the last edition the clubs Novice singles became an all Camels final with Shaun going up against Davie Kennedy, yes that is Ray's son. The final was held on a Sunday with a very proud Wally as scorer. In a tight game that went shot for shot Shaun came out victorious winning 25-18. Well done to both Shaun & Dave you did the Camels proud!

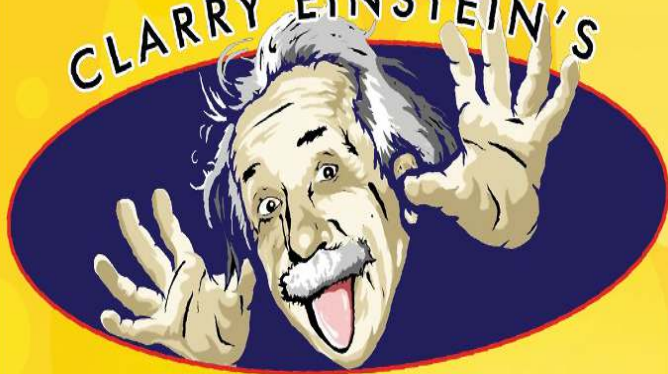

CAMELS PLAYER IN PROFILE Darcy (Kakoda) Hutchings

Darcy joined the club in Sept 2013 after his father in law Winston Armstrong suggested he give bowls a go! Since joining Darcy has entered every competition the club puts on and is now a regular in the penants teams. Darcy hails from the country and as a young bloke played league for Moree. Anyone who has spent time in Darcy's company will tell you he is very likeable & always has a smile on his dial! Darcy is a proud Aussie and recently put that pride into action by taking on the Kokoda Trail to honour the Aussie diggers who were part of the Pacific battle WWII. After months of preparation the real thing was everything he expected and more! As Darcy put it "The trek is a life changing experience, you are literally walking in their footsteps, it gives you a greater appreciation for what they sacrificed, an emotional and life changing experience" Well Done Darcy!

MENS MANOR

Angry Wife

An angry wife was complaining about her husband spending all his free time in a bar, so one night he took her along with him. "What'll you have?" he asked.

"Oh, I don't know. The same as you I suppose," she replied.

So, the husband ordered a couple of Jack Daniel's and threw his down in one shot. His wife watched him, then took a sip from her glass and immediately spat it out.

"Yuck, that's TERRIBLE!" she spluttered. "I don't know how you can drink this stuff!"

"Well, there you go," cried the husband. "And you think I'm out enjoying myself every night!"

It was so cold last week that I saw several City Council Members with their hands in their own pockets."

Husband and wife are getting all snugly in bed. The passion is heating up.

But then the wife stops and says, "I don't feel like it. I just want you to hold me."

The husband says "WHAT???" The wife explains that he must not be in tune with her emotional needs as a woman.

The husband realizes that nothing is going to happen tonight and he might as well deal with it.

So the next day the husband takes her shopping at a big dept. store. He walks around and had her try on three very expensive outfits. And then tells his wife, We'll take all three of them. Then goes over and gets matching shoes worth $200 each.

And then goes to the jewellery Dept. and gets a set of diamond earrings. The wife is so excited (she thinks her husband has flipped out, but she does not care). She goes for the tennis bracelet.

The husband says "but you don't even play tennis, but OK if you like it then lets get it."

The wife is jumping up and down. So excited she cannot even believe what is going on. She says "I am ready to go, lets go to the cash register."

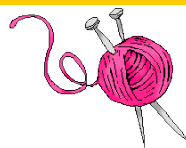

The husband says, "no no no, honey we're not going to buy all this stuff." The wife face goes blank.

"No honey - I just want you to HOLD this stuff for a while."

Her face gets really red she is about to explode and then the husband says "You must not be in tune with my financial needs as a MAN!"

CRAFT CORNER

Tea cup candles

What you will need:

Tea cup and saucer
Cheap plain candles
Coloured crayons
Wick
Sticky tape
Popsicle sticks

Instructions

1. The most cost effective way of making these candles is to melt down some inexpensive candles or old candles you may already have. Alternatively you can buy wax pellets from a craft store and melt them down following packet instructions.

2. Using a tin can to hold the wax, make a double boiler, by putting it in a pan of boiling water. Add crayons for colour if desired.

3. Secure your wick to the bottom of teacup with sticky tape and attach the other end of the wick to a popsicle stick as shown. Then pour the wax in, slowly, if you pour it too fast they may sink when they set.

4. Once they harden, trim the wicks and you're candles are complete.

Recipe Room

Pumpkin, leek & spinach quiche

Ingredients

- 700g butternut pumpkin, peeled, cut into 2cm pieces
- Olive Oil Spray
- 1 leek, pale section only, halved lengthways, washed, dried, thinly sliced crossways
- 2 garlic cloves, crushed
- 100g baby spinach leaves
- 4 eggs
- 2 egg whites
- 60ml (1/4 cup) skim milk
- 80g (1/3 cup) low-fat ricotta
- 1/3 cup fresh basil leaves

Method

Step 1.
Preheat oven to 200°C.
Line a large baking tray with non-stick baking paper.
Place the pumpkin on the lined tray and spray with olive oil spray. Season with pepper. Bake in oven for 25 minutes or until golden.

Step 2.

Meanwhile, heat a large non-stick frying pan over medium heat. Spray lightly with olive oil spray to grease. Add the leek and cook, stirring occasionally, for 5 minutes or until soft. Add the garlic and cook, stirring, for 1 minute or until soft. Add the spinach and cook, stirring, for 3 minutes or until the spinach just wilts.

Step 3.

Line a 26 x 16cm (base measurement) slab pan with non-stick baking paper.
Spread the pumpkin and leek mixture evenly over the base of the pan.

Step 4.

Whisk together the eggs, egg whites and milk in a jug. Pour egg mixture evenly over pumpkin and leek mixture. Sprinkle evenly with ricotta. Bake for 20 minutes or until puffed and golden. Sprinkle with the basil. Serve with mixed salad leaves, if desired.
