

OCTOBER BOWLING NEWS

Celebrating
BHBC's
80th Birthday

Message from the Chairman

Bowling News for October is dedicated to recalling the 80th Birthday Celebrations which occurred on the weekends of the 16th and 17th September.

I hope you enjoy the photos of our 'members in action' and I must thank our resident photographer and keen club member Bruce Stotesbury for taking the photos.

It was great to be able to participate with the ladies on Saturday with the 5 a side tournament. As I mentioned during presentations, it is not often that the opportunity comes up to participate with the ladies and it was a very enjoyable afternoon. It would be a good step to lock in a future mixed tournament around the clubs birthday and maybe on another occasion during the year.

There was an excellent turnout to the Neil Diamond show by Steve Cummins on the Saturday night and judging by the number of people on the dance floor it must be rated a success

Thank you to members and their guests for attending the Sunday Eagles/Creedence Clearwater tribute shows. It was a great promotion for the club and a special thank you to all the staff for your fantastic service across the weekend.

Special guests attending on Sunday were:

Our Patrons, Daphne Mitchell, Hazel Easton and John Fowler. Our State MP Michael Hart, local Councillor Pauline Young, auditor Russell Trevorrow and a major sponsor Ashley Heritage. All remarked that they thoroughly enjoyed the day.

Thanks to Dorothy Hanlon for making the cake.

May there be many more club birthdays to come.

Paul Hynes
